Be in the Know

KEEPING RESIDENTS INFORMED + INVOLVED

Happy Friday, Janet. Here's what you need to know to start your weekend.

Sand soccer is back at the beach!

The North American Sand Soccer Championships, the globe's premier single-weekend soccer festival, returns to our resort city for the 29th time, June 9-11, 2023. Staged over 20 full city blocks along the shoreline, spectators can enjoy world-class soccer and other sports like beach volleyball, flag football, field hockey and kickball. The event is fun for all ages and FREE and open to the public. See you on the sand!

Mountain Bike Trails Open at Marshview Park

In case you missed it, Virginia Beach's first public mountain bike trail system opened at Marshview Park last month! The trail system features over four miles of mountain bike trails with three levels of difficulty and can be enjoyed by bikers, walkers, runners and dog walkers.

Marshview Park is a 100-acre wooded park on Lake Rudee in the Oceanfront area. Trailhead maps, wayfinding signage, and bike repair stations have also been added to ensure safety for all visitors.
