

Be in the Know

KEEPING RESIDENTS INFORMED + INVOLVED

Progress Continues on Flood Protection Program

The Virginia Beach Flood Protection Program (FPP)—The Ripple Effect—is a comprehensive 10-year plan to address recurrent flooding in Virginia Beach. An update on the status of FPP projects was given to the City Council on Dec. 5, including a new flood visualization tool that demonstrates reductions in flood exposure upon completion of one of the projects.

FPP Updates

City of Virginia Beach Employees Celebrate 30+ Years of Service

The City of Virginia Beach currently employs more than 250 full-time workers with 30+ years of City service. Last week, the City honored the extraordinary commitment of 65 employees who reached service milestones of 30, 35, 40 and 45 years of service, with three employees celebrating 45 years of service.

Who Was Honored

Free 2024 Water Awareness Calendars

Pick up a free water awareness calendar, featuring illustrations from Virginia Beach elementary school students and tips about proper fat, oil, and grease disposal; water conservation; and what not to flush.

Get Your Free Calendar

EMS Medical Director Celebrates 25 Years

Stewart Martin, M.D., celebrates 25 years as Medical Director for the VB Rescue system, where he ensures his team delivers the highest quality pre-hospital patient care to those in need.

Learn More